Pathways to leadership:
women in academic medicine conference
Friday 14 October 2016
BMA House, London

Programme

9.30 – 10am  Registration and refreshments

10 – 10.05am  Welcome and introduction
Dr Carmen Soto, BMA MASC women in academic medicine group chair

10.05 – 10.15am  Welcome
Dr Anthea Mowat, BMA representative body chair

10.15 – 11am  Keynote address
Professor Jenny Higham, St George’s University of London principal

11 – 11.45am  Speed mentoring

11.45am – 12.25pm  What the research tells us about women in academic medicine
Chaired by Professor Sarah Stewart-Brown, BMA MASC women in academic medicine group deputy chair
Dr Alison Chapple, University of Oxford research lecturer
Dr Kate Sang, Heriot-Watt University associate professor in management
Dr Aparna Viswanath, ST6 in trauma and orthopaedics

12.25 – 1.15pm  Discussion groups
Attendees will be able to attend two discussion groups during the day and are asked to select their preferences from the following groups.

1  Leadership and management
Dr Natalie Silvey, Chelsea and Westminster Foundation Trust innovation and improvement fellow

2  Negotiating skills
Ursula Ross, BMA regional co-ordinator

3  Resilience
Dr Rebecca Viney, GP and GP appraiser

4  Sexual diversity
Dr Catherine Meads, RAND Europe research leader and Professor Susan Bewley, King’s College London professor of women’s health

5  Women academics in primary care: getting our stories heard
Dr Joanne Reeve, Society for Academic Primary Care

6  Women academics in community and public health
Professor Sarah Stewart-Brown, BMA MASC women in academic medicine group deputy chair

7  Women academics in hospital medicine
Dr Beryl de Souza, BMA MASC women in academic medicine group

1.15 – 2pm  Lunch
2 – 2.45pm  Discussion groups

2.45 – 3pm  Refreshments

3 – 3.10pm  Doctors for doctors
            Tom Rapanakis, BMA doctors for doctors service co-ordinator

3.10 – 3.30pm  How can research influence policy: hearing the patient’s voice
               Kath Evans, NHS England head of patient experience

3.30 – 4.30pm  Panel session: Women leaders – lessons from my experience
               Chair: Dr Marcia Schofield, BMA medical academic staff committee co-deputy chair
               Professor Parveen Kumar, Medical Women’s Federation president
               Dr Suzy Lishman, Royal College of Pathologists president
               Professor Rosalind Raine, University College London professor of health care evaluation

4.30 – 4.50pm  Reflections on the day and summing up

4.50pm  Networking drinks reception