

Annual conference of public health medicine 2015

Reclaiming our voice, giving voice to the marginalised

Monday 27 April 2015

BMA House, London

Programme

9.30 – 10.15am	Registration and refreshments
10 – 10.15am	Teach in for new members
10.15 – 10.20am	Welcome Dr Mary E Black, chair, annual conference of public health medicine
10.20 – 10.30am	Update on work of the public health medicine committee Dr Iain Kennedy, chair, public health medicine committee
10.30 – 11.30am	Reclaiming our voice Ms Catherine Macadam, chair, patient liaison group Dr Kim Holt, consultant paediatrician, NHS Dr Peter Brambleby, independent public health consultant
11.30am – 12.05pm	Debate of motions
12.05 – 12.15pm	Update on the work of the public health medicine registrars subcommittee Dr Lucy-Jane Davis, chair, public health medicine registrars subcommittee
12.15 – 1pm	Lunch
1pm – 1.10pm	Election of 2016 conference chair
1.10pm-1.45pm	Debate of motions
1.45 – 2.15pm	Film showing followed by questions from the floor Dr Stella Botchway curating
2.15 – 3.15pm	The Sandy Macara Memorial Address Two perspectives on health and social inequality from: Dr Margaret du Feu, consultant psychiatrist specialising in mental health and deafness Dr Colin Brown, infectious diseases registrar and lead, King's Sierra Leone Partnership
3.15 – 4.15pm	Our vision for public health services Dr Mark Porter, BMA council chair Dr Michael Thomas, consultant in public health medicine and chair, BMA Welsh committee for public health medicine Dr Vinod Tohani, consultant in public health and independent/visiting senior research fellow, Queens University Belfast
4.15 – 4.30pm	Closing remarks Dr Mary E Black, chair
4.30 – 5.30pm	Networking drinks reception

