Welsh junior doctors conference
Thursday 4 April 2019

Programme

9.45 – 10.30am  Registration and refreshments

10.30 – 10.45am  Welcome
Dr Josie Cheetham, BMA Welsh junior doctors committee chair

10.45 – 11.15am  Why we need to talk about fatigue
Dr Michael Farquhar, consultant in sleep medicine, Evelina Children’s Hospital

11.15am – 12.15pm  Breakout sessions:
Delegates will have the opportunity to attend one of the following breakout sessions, and have a personal itinerary in their welcome pack:

Rota monitoring
Fiona Jackson and Nia Potter, BMA member relations and Dr Bethan Roberts, BMA GPC (Wales) member

Breakout: know your contractual rights, 2002 junior doctor contract
Christopher Saunders and Charlotte Dixon, BMA member relations

Breakout: Rota gaps
BMA workforce and innovations team senior policy advisor

Breakout: Benefits of a single lead employer
Julie Rogers, director of workforce and organisational development/deputy chief executive, Health Education and Improvement Wales (HEIW)

12.15 – 1.15pm  Breakout sessions
Delegates will have the opportunity to attend a second breakout session

1.15 – 2pm  Lunch

2 – 2.30pm  Wellbeing at work in a system under pressure
Dr Alys Cole-King, consultant liaison psychiatrist and clinical director for 4 Mental Health

2.30 – 3pm  Update on the 2016 junior doctors contract review in England
Josephine Brady, BMA pay and contract team, head of employed doctors

3 – 3.15pm  Refreshments

3.15 – 3.45pm  Panel discussion on raising concerns
Panel to include representatives from Health Education Improvement Wales, General Medical Council, and Welsh Government and BMA junior doctor representative

3.45 – 4.15pm  What is Health Education Improvement Wales (HEIW)
Dr Push Mangat, medical director, HEIW

4.15 – 4.30pm  Closing remarks