

Clinical academic trainees conference 2019

Success in the face of adversity – making clinical academia work for you

Saturday 2 February 2019, BMA House, London

BMA

Programme

9.30 – 10am	REGISTRATION AND REFRESHMENTS
10 – 10.10am	Introduction
10.10 – 10.20am	Welcome Dr Anthea Mowat, BMA chair of Representative Body
10.20 – 10.30am	Networking session
10.30 – 11.15am	My experience as an academic trainee and the NIHR training programme Dr Amara Nwosu, consultant in palliative medicine, academic palliative and end of life care department, Royal Liverpool and Broadgreen University Hospitals NHS Trust
11.15 – 11.30am	REFRESHMENTS
11.30am – 12.30pm	Workshops: Making the most of your academic career... Choose one from: <ul style="list-style-type: none">– In the pharmaceutical industry Dr John Bolodeoku, Faculty of Pharmaceutical Medicine representative to BMA medical academic staff committee– While working less than full time Dr Fizzah Ali, BMA women in academic medicine group and Dr Ania Koziell, HEFC senior lecturer and consultant paediatric nephrologist, King's College London– While working overseas Dr Rachael Pickering, Integritas Healthcare CIC medical director– Using creative methods to support your own wellbeing Nicole Brown, lecturer in education, academic head of learning and teaching, University College London– With a long-term health condition Dr Mark Weir, BMA occupational medicine committee chair– Working with the media Abi Rimmer, BMJ news reporter and careers editor– As a dental academic trainee Dr Giles McCracken, clinical senior lecturer and honorary consultant in restorative dentistry, Newcastle University
12.30 – 1.15pm	LUNCH
1.15 – 2.15pm	Workshops: choose a second from the selection above
2.15 – 2.30pm	What the BMA does for you and getting involved Dr Bala Karunakaran, BMA joint academic trainees subcommittee chair
2.30 – 2.45pm	Junior doctor contract review update Dr Jeeves Wijesuriya, BMA junior doctors committee chair
2.45 – 3.15pm	Panel discussion: funding for academic trainees
3.15 – 4pm	How to navigate the complexities of clinical academic career progression Professor Lucy Chappell, NIHR research professor in obstetrics, King's College London
4pm	Reflections on the day and summing up
4 - 5pm	Networking drinks reception

