Health And Social Care Integration – Northern Ireland

Organisation of health and social care in Northern Ireland

Key features

- Integrated structure of health and social care services since 1973
- Health and social care board is responsible for commissioning services, managing resources and performance improvement
- Local commissioning groups focus on planning and resourcing of services
- Health and social care trusts deliver services