About the conference

ICPH 2021: A vision for humanity in medicine

This three-day conference, sponsored jointly by the British, American and Canadian Medical Associations, aims to support doctors to create better working environments for themselves and their colleagues.

By presenting positive interventions and bringing together a vibrant, international community of professionals, this conference aims to enable attendees to make their career and workplace more conducive to sustaining their health and wellbeing. The conference will give attendees the tools to put ideas into practice.

A healthier workforce delivers better outcomes for patients and this conference will offer strategies to make positive change for the benefit of patients and teams. The conference will include inspirational keynote presentations, themed presentation streams, interactive workshop sessions and engaging social events.
