CMM conference – 26 April, 13.00-17.30

13.00-13.05:  Welcome and introduction

13.05-13.15:  Opening address

Dr Chaand Nagpaul, BMA chair of council

13.15-13.45:  The 2020s and leading through complexity

Mr Peter Lees, Faculty of Medical Leadership and Management chief executive

13.45-14.15:  Spaces for listening

Brigid Russell, coach and leadership consultant and Charlie Jones, clinical psychologist at North Bristol NHS Trust (additional guests TBA)

Professor Raymond Agius, emeritus professor of occupational and environmental medicine at University of Manchester

14.45-14.55:  Break

14.55-15.25:  Implementing adjustments in the workplace

Lucy Brant and Lucy Kerr, BMA senior policy advisors

15.25-15.55:  Staff recovery in the wake of the pandemic

Professor Neil Greenberg, professor of Defence Mental Health at King’s College London

15.55-16.25:  Managing ill health and conduct considerations

Chris Sharkey, BMA employer advisory service manager

16.25-16.30:  Break

16.30-17.00:  Health inequalities and what medical managers can do to reduce them

Sir Harry Burns, professor of global public health at the University of Strathclyde

17.00-17.30:  Final session TBA