Finance while studying at university is a bewildering and complicated business for students.

Financial entitlements and available funding differs according to where you live, whilst you are studying medicine in the UK.

This guide has been put together to provide you with the information you need to navigate through the world of student finance in Northern Ireland, and to point you in the direction of the help and support that is available.
Undergraduate from Northern Ireland and studying in QUB?

You are entitled to:

Student loan for tuition fees
Non means-tested; can cover full annual tuition fee of £4,630 for 2022-23 academic year.
www.studentfinanceni.co.uk

Student loan for maintenance/living costs
Means-tested; up to £6,780 can be awarded; allocated based on whether you are still living with parents/guardians or away from home; paid out in three instalments throughout academic year.

Maintenance Loans are repaid. Interest is charged on any amount borrowed from the date the first payment is made to you.
www.studentfinanceni.co.uk

Maintenance grant and special support grant
Means-tested and non-repayable; up to £3,475 is awarded.

These grants can be applied for alongside any other available finance, including a maintenance loan, as part of the student finance application each year.

If a student is eligible for a special support grant they cannot get a maintenance grant too.
www.studentfinanceni.co.uk

QUB bursary
Paid directly to an eligible student’s bank account in one instalment, normally in mid-February on the basis of a student’s verified household income. Approximately £440 will be awarded.
DoH NI bursary
The Department of Health in Northern Ireland (DoH NI) will give you a bursary in your fifth and later years of study, regardless of where you study in the UK.

The bursaries are income assessed and the amount paid depends on the level of household income (a maximum of £1,920 for students living at home and £2,355 for students living out of the parental home).

During the period for which the bursary is payable, DoH will pay your tuition fee contribution in full (£4,630 for 2022-23). However, please note that your maintenance loan will be reduced for the balance of your maintenance support.

If eligible, you can apply for a non-means tested grant of £1,000 per academic year via NHS BHA Student Services, or call the NHS BSA helpline on 0300 330 1345.
You are NOT entitled to:

Student loan for tuition fees
As you are studying medicine as a second degree (2022/23 tuition fee – up to £9,250). Please check relevant websites for exact information.
International/EU (excl RoI) students

Graduates – Ulster University
Tuition Fees Academic Year 2022/23 are £37,000.

Undergraduates – QUB
Tuition fees Academic Year 2022/23 are £32,800 (rising to £34,450 in 2023-24).

In addition:
The DoH NI charges a mandatory clinical placement levy for all new international and EU medical students commencing study at UU and QUB. This charge is payable in each year of study to cover access to clinical placements in the Northern Ireland Health and Social Care system. The clinical placement levy of £10,000 is in addition to the tuition fees.

Please note, the clinical placement levy is reviewed regularly and is subject to change. It is anticipated there will be an increase to the amount payable for the clinical placement levy for students commencing the programme in the 2024/25 academic year.
Additional course costs (QUB)

Depending on the programme of study there may be extra costs which are not covered by tuition fees, which students will need to consider when planning their studies. For more information go to https://www.qub.ac.uk/courses/undergraduate/medicine-mb-a100/#fees
Other sources of funding

You may be entitled to:

Local initiatives
In some areas local philanthropists offer money to support the education of local people. It’s worth asking your local council if such people exist in your area.

Charitable Support
The following is a non-exhaustive list of charities which may be able to provide you with additional sources of funding, depending on your individual circumstances:

Sidney Perry Foundation
Aimed primarily at helping first degree students in hardship.
www.the-sidney-perry-foundation.co.uk/

Medical Women’s Federation
Financial support for female medical students.
www.medicalwomensfederation.org.uk/

Loans

Loans can provide a stop gap in your finances but must be used with care. Be cautious and research thoroughly before entering into a loan agreement. Find out repayment schedules and deadlines, interest rates and against what the money will be secured. Also consider the long term impact of loans, you won’t be a struggling student forever, but a mountain of debt can harm your ability to obtain a mortgage.

Interest free student overdraft

Many banks offer interest-free overdrafts if you open a student account with them. They have stipulations such as it being your main account, or at least in regular use. Following graduation the overdraft may no longer stay interest free depending on the bank so care must be taken.

Bank/Credit union loans

Care must be taken with taking out such debt they can offer an avenue when other options are closed. Shop around and make sure you get the lowest interest rate available. Also obtain detailed information about repayment.

The Society for Promoting the Training of Women

Interest free loans for women only.
