

Public Health Medicine Conference – Wednesday 22 March 2023: “Tackling 21st century poverty: the role of public health”

Outline Agenda

N.B. precise timings may be subject to change

---

09.00 Registration opens – tea and coffee available

09.15 New representatives teach-in (30 minutes)

10.00 Introduction, house-keeping and formal business by the Chair of conference, including the elections being held during the day.

10.10 Formal welcome

10.20 Business motions and policy motions

10.35 Report from Penelope Toff, Chair of Public Health Medicine Committee

10.45 Debate of motions

---

11.05 Keynote (i) Martin McKee, BMA President
Followed by questions

11.55 Related motions

---

12.05 Report from Kevin Fenton, President of the Faculty of Public Health

12.15 Debate of motions

---

12.25 Break-out Groups

- Devolved Nations
  - Local Government
  - Policy and Advocacy
  - Workforce and regulation
-

13.10 Lunch

---

14.00 Welcome back

---

14.05 Keynote (ii) Maggie Rae, Head of South West Population and Public Health HEE & President Epidemiology and Public Health Section, Royal Society of Medicine and Stuart Bourne, Consultant in Public Health, Aneurin Bevan University Health Board
Followed by questions

15.05 Debate of motions

---

15.20 Report from Youssof Oskrochi, Co-Chair of Public Health Medicine Registrars Subcommittee

---

15.25 Panel discussion with short presentations on different aspects of the conference theme
Introductions: 15-20mins – Questions and answers: 25-30mins

---

16.15 Debate of motions

16.45 Emergency motions

16.55 Summing up and report of election results

Close

17.00 Drinks reception – in the Snow Room