ASSESSMENT

At its February meeting, the Awards and Honours subcommittee of the Organisation committee considers all completed nominations against the criteria set out in Section 8 a-i (as above). The subcommittee then determines the level of award to be conferred and the recommendations are submitted to UK Council for approval.

IF AN AWARD IS CONFERRED

The nomination contact will be informed and the successful nominees will be invited (along with a guest) to the installation of the President ceremony at the BMA’s Annual Representative meeting (followed by a dinner), normally held on the Tuesday evening at the ARM where successful nominees will be presented with their award.

FEEDBACK

For unsuccessful nominations the Chair of the Organisation committee will give written or verbal feedback to the nominator upon request to sconnolly@bma.org.uk. However, please note that the detailed discussions of the Awards and Honours subcommittee are strictly confidential and only the recommendations are recorded, therefore, any feedback will be limited and reflect the consensus reached.
